KEN KAMMAL

Integrative Artist

About Me

Ken Kammal is an award-winning integrative artist renowned for his transformative works that merge surrealism, evolution, and introspection. His art invites viewers to journey beyond the visible, exploring the delicate interplay between spirit, nature, and the unseen. His newest collection, Plants in a Portal, which delves into themes of transformation and the spirit of nature, was featured in his solo exhibition, “Exploring the Soul of Life: Through Art and Nature,” at The Las Vegas Natural History Museum. Kammal’s acclaimed collection, “Enter Anew Realm”, was showcased internationally at de Curated International Magazine’s Tropicality art exhibition in Athens, Greece, and at The Holy Art exhibition in London, England.

A conscious creative, Ken Kammal merges visual art with spiritual insight, inviting reflection on the unseen forces shaping humanity. His current exhibition, The World is in a Portal, is on view at the Spring Valley Library Gallery (Summer 2025, June 3–Aug 19). His earlier works, including Enact Esther and I Go by Many Names, have been featured in The Black Life Ordinary and The Reverence exhibitions at the Nevada State Building.

Through his work, Kammal opens portals for viewers to explore their own worlds—bridging consciousness and creation, and illuminating the boundless energy of transformation that surrounds us.

My Artistic Style:

My artistic style blends introspection with exploration, using acrylics and repurposed materials to uncover the deeper truths and unseen nature of my subjects. My work is defined by surreal elements, rich textures, and vibrant colors, often exploring themes of transformation, spirituality, and interconnectedness.

My art transcends boundaries, merging realism with imaginative abstraction to evoke wonder and discovery. Through layers of meaning, I focus on storytelling, inviting viewers to look beyond the surface and connect with the soul of my work. I aim to create immersive experiences that resonate universally.

ARTIST QUOTE

"My paintings are portals."
